POLES' RUSE GOT GOVERNMENT ARMS

Disguised Revolutionists Escaped With Big Consignment of Revolvers.

WARSAW, October 15.—A consignment of several thousand revolvers, purchased by the Russian government in Berlin, recently fell into the hands of the Polish revolutionists. Shortly after the arrival of the car containing the pistols at the Warsaw freight yards an artillery officer and squad of soldiers appeared, presented the bills of lading and an authorization to receive the weapons, which were loaded upon a wagon and carried away. It later developed that the soldiers were discussed revolutionists, and the documents forged.

Investigation shows that since last December the revolutionists have been accumulating large stocks of rifles and re-
